Dear Ms. Johns:

I recommend Jewell Miller, a law firm librarian from Miami, Florida, to your committee as a candidate for a grant to attend the 1990 SEAAL Annual Meeting in Oxford, Mississippi.

Ms. Miller has experiences in both law firm and academic law libraries. Her experiences in academic law libraries focused primarily on public services before a shift in her career to law firm libraries. Her experiences as a law firm librarian are quite varied, including reference, management, online searching, and other areas. This wide range of experiences makes Ms. Miller a valuable member of the law library profession. Her experiences in the two different environments might prove helpful and insightful to new and experienced law librarians attending the Annual Meeting.

Ms. Miller’s current law firm does not reimburse attorneys, librarians and others who travel for any professional association work and meeting. I think that the Chapter should help Ms. Miller attend the Annual Meeting for both the information about her experiences which she can provide to other attendees and the professional development which the Annual Meeting could provide to Ms. Miller.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Timothy L. Coggin
