Dear Bill:

I have the copy of your letter to Leah regarding an increase in the Lucille Elliott Scholarship award. I feel that this is one of the most important functions of the Chapter and am in favor of granting as much as our resources can bear. What that amount will be, I have no idea since I do not know what our expenses are beyond the Institute and the Scholarship Fund. If $600 is what we can afford, I am certainly in favor of the increase.

I hope that you had a pleasant holiday season.

Sincerely,

Caroline C. Heriot, Vice-President
