Dear Cheryl:

Thanks very much to you for helping me during the past two years. I have enjoyed working with you on the Southeastern Law Librarian and have appreciated greatly the kind assistance of you and the other people at Law Book Exchange. The Chapter certainly appreciates the valuable assistance which Law Book Exchange provides to the membership; printing of the newsletter is a great way to help us convey information to all chapter members.

Michael Petit (formerly of the University of Miami and now with a law firm in Miami) will be taking over the position. I expect that he will contact you shortly to talk about printing and mailing.

Many thanks again.

Sincerely,

Timothy L. Coggins
