Dear Paul:

Thank you for sending me a copy of your article on the education of Julia Tutwiler. I enjoyed your account of this stage of her life. What a remarkable woman she must have been.

After discussing your manuscript with the current SEAALL Newsletter Editor Kathy Herberer, I have sent it on to the new editor, Jim Gates, so that it can be kept with the reports of the other scholarship winners. Do you think you could write for publication in the Newsletter a brief account of your project? While Jim will have the final say, I'm sure that the members would enjoy reading the sort of information you shared with me in the second paragraph of your letter regarding the research process itself.

On behalf of the committee, I wish to thank you for including reference to SEAALL's support of your research in your pre-footnote note.

Please say hello to your wife from Jennifer, who will be a senior at N.C. State in the fall, and from me.

Sincerely,

Jean M. Holcomb, SEAALL Scholarship Committee Chair
