Dear Corinne:

It was indeed a pleasure to meet you again in Lexington and to get to know you and Dorothy and to have such a nice trip together, even if gastronomically abortive.

I haven't had a conference with Bougas and John Folger yet about the newsletter but have arranged it for next week. After that chat I will send you the typed minutes I took on the meeting in Mary's brief absence.

Under separate cover I am sending a recent pamphlet gotten up by our Attorney General, if you know of a similar publication for Miss. I would be delighted to receive a copy, or to know where one may be obtained. Also enclosed is our latest acquisition list.

Sincerely,

Ruth (Corry)

seeing that enclosure reminded me of a certain creature, soon to retire. I shall withhold his name out of deference.
