Lexington, Ky.

Dear Dorothy:

Thanks for your note and program, it sounds wonderful, sincerely.

Please destroy those copies of the Newsletter v. 2 #3 I sent you. We did not mail them out because your letter to membership precluded it. Your copies were the only ones mailed out. I got your letter Saturday and was going to mail the Newsletter Monday but won't.

Frendergast sent her dues, sorry she can't make Washington. I also got Frenche's ballot.

I'm looking forward to Washington and I'll contact you Saturday around 8:00 P.M. June 28 at the Sheraton Park. I'm staying with the Hogans Saturday and Sunday night and am meeting them Saturday at 8:00 P.M. at the Sheraton Park Lobby. Just after I get to Washington Saturday night.

I have a room at the Sheraton Park for Monday and Tuesday but I may leave Washington Tuesday night. I am not staying for the whole convention.

Until then - and I hope things go smoothly.

Ruth (Sorry)

CONVENTION NEWS 1958

Final program for the A.A.L.L. National Convention appears in the May issue of the Law Library Journal, p. 167. A glance at the array of guest speakers and the many activities planned is certainly an inducement to all from the Southeast to make every effort to attend. If you haven't already made reservations, get them in quickly to save yourself some heated aggravations in hot Washington, D.C! Remember the dates: June 29 - July 3. July 4, the law librarians are invited to the University of Virginia in Charlottesville. Try to make it!

SOUTHEASTERN CHAPTER

Arrangements for the Southeastern annual meeting have progressed rapidly. Another excellent meeting is in the making. Madam President indicates that the following program has been set up:

DATE: Sunday, June 29
PLACE: Sheraton-Park Hotel
      Washington, D. C.

Luncheon: Miss Lucille Elliot, Speaker
Afternoon program: Mr. Marvin Hogan: The Washington Chapter A.A.L.L.
                   Mrs. Margaret Lane: Documents Program, L.S.U.
Dinner Speaker: Hon. Warren Madden, U.S. Court of Claims.
Registration: $5.00 (?) or whatever amount is necessary to cover Sunday Luncheon and Dinner.

Further information is forthcoming to the membership (perhaps even before the Newsletter).

NEWS NOTES

The Southeastern Chapter can boast 30 paid-up members. Have YOU sent in your dues? Let's make it unanimous - render unto Caesar his due [s]! Ruth Corry, TREASURER, will look you up in Washington.

The Nominating Committee has announced that Stanley J. Bougas and Ruth Corry are the nominees for Vice-President-President-Elect and Secretary-Treasurer respectively. Ballots have been sent to the membership. Return to Ruth Corry at the Georgia State Library, Room 301 Judicial Building, Atlanta 3, Georgia, by June 20 in order that the electoral count may be completed for the annual meeting.

Illness claimed the time of President Dorothy Salmon and Talbot Fowler for a while, but both are once again getting merrily about.
