Dear Kate:

In response to your letter of Oct. 9, 1958 concerning the calling of a general meeting in Chapel Hill or elsewhere in honor of the visit of A.A.L.L. Pres. Irv. Pollock to the S.E. Chapter.

My views are these:
(1) I do not think we should change the Chapter meeting from N.Y. because I'm sure very few people will consider going (a) in April anywhere (b) to a Chapter meeting other than with national this year, since that seems to be settled in the Chapter members' mind as the 1959 meeting place.
(2) I do think it is proper to make some gesture toward Pollock since he is willing to take the trouble of visiting the Chapter this year. It is very commendable of Mary to suggest Chapel Hill. Neither Bougas nor I feel that anyone would be interested in coming to Atlanta so soon after the recent meeting here and besides since Bougas is the forthcoming President he needs perhaps to save this locale for later consideration as a meeting place.
(3) I do think that a general meeting in April in Chapel Hill might work and that a few people could come there who perhaps couldn't get to N.Y. I think it is highly regrettable that you can't come and that might actually defeat the purpose of Pollock's visit but perhaps if you designate some one to act in your stead who knows of your plans for the year perhaps that would be sufficient, official and informed representation for you. Bougas and I had a telephone conversation this morning and we are in essential agreement that we both probably could make it to Chapel Hill to such a special meeting and probably Sarah Leverett and some of Duke and Wake Forrest people could easily come.
(4) Your thought about canvassing members is a good one. Perhaps if you confirmed to the membership that the 1959 Chapter meeting is set for N.Y. and at the same time canvassed the membership to see how many might like to attend a special, informal, dutch meeting in Chapel Hill with no formal program you could then have more to go on in deciding to accept or refuse Mary's invitation.

F. In brief I think there might be sufficient interest to call a special meeting in Chapel Hill but not a Chapter meeting.

Sincerely yours,
