Dear Ruth:

It was delightful to have your letter and to know that you enjoyed the visit. It was certainly a great pleasure for me. I think that your Chapter is very advanced in its ideas and I like your plan to invite other Chapter presidents to visit you. It was in my thoughts while in Atlanta that the Chapters are going to be an exceedingly important and influential part of the Association. I have wondered sometimes if they might grow so strong that there would be a confederation. That is in the future.

I appreciated very much that the Chapter wished to take care of my hotel expenses. My appreciation of your kindness is just as great, even though the Association treasury did take care of it. It seems to me best that when the money was authorized to be spent for this purpose that your Chapter funds could go for something else.

I would love to come back and go tripping with you to Savannah and the Islands. It must have been lovely. I appreciated having a post card.

You were dear to quote a part of the first sentence of the President's Page. I am glad I had the privilege of knowing better than was possible in any other way the members who were in Atlanta.

Sincerely yours,
