FROM THE PRESIDENT

This year has gone by much too fast. It seems just like yesterday that I was asked to finish Peggy Martin's term as Vice President and assume the office of President when she moved to Colorado. And, now, I am writing my last column. This year has been very rewarding for me by getting to know more people in the chapter and by working with some of the finest law librarians in the country. SEAALL does have a reputation of being a stepping stone to leadership positions in AALL!

The SEAALL Committees have been busy. Their annual reports, presented at the Callaway Gardens meeting, reflected their activities. I would like to thank everyone who served on a committee for their commitment to SEAALL.

The hard work of many people in the chapter produced a great annual meeting in Callaway Gardens. The beautiful surroundings and an interesting educational program produced a winning combination. I think everyone had a pleasant time. I would like to thank Robin Mills, the Emory Law Library staff and the other Atlanta librarians on the Local Arrangements Committee for all of their hard work for making us feel welcome. Ed Edmonds and the Program Committee presented a varied and informative program that had something for everyone. The Atlanta Chapter sponsored the Institute on "Negotiating the Management Maze".

Please mark your AALL preliminary program for the SEAALL Business Meeting on Monday, July 20th, at 5:00 p.m., at the Hilton Hotel. At that time Ed Edmonds will be installed as President. Following the meeting will be our joint reception from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. with the other chapters in our region.

It has been an interesting and rewarding year as the President of SEAALL. I would like to thank every member for their part in making it a successful year for me and the Chapter.
