Dear Kathy and Russell:

The Council of Chapter Presidents Coordinator, Jean Holcomb, recently sent the list of the 1991-92 AALL Executive Board members and has requested that it be sent to our chapter's newsletter editors. Our newsletter is supposed to be sent to each member of the AALL Executive Board. Please make the appropriate arrangements for this. If you need me to do anything to facilitate this, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Mary F. Cross
President

AALL PUBLICATIONS GUIDELINES

1. All official AALL publications should bear the name and logo of the Association.

2. All chapter, special interest section, and committee publications should bear the statement: "A (Chapter, Section, Committee) of the American Association of Law Libraries."

3. All chapters, sections, and committees should send a depository copy of each of their publications to AALL Headquarters.

4. Special interest section newsletters will be printed and distributed by AALL headquarters. A section may choose an alternative means of publication for its newsletter, as long as the section agrees to provide AALL with the necessary copies to meet its special subscription service.

5. All members of a special interest section shall receive, as a benefit of membership, a subscription to the section's newsletter.

6. All proposals for AALL-affiliated publications should be submitted to the Publications Policy Committee, which will serve as a clearinghouse for publication proposals. The Committee will determine whether a proposal duplicates an existing publication or other planned publication projects.

7. All proposals for new AALL sponsored series or AALL funded publications should be submitted to the Publications Policy Committee, which shall review the proposal and make recommendations to the Executive Board.

8. All new AALL-affiliated publications, including the first issue of a periodical, should be submitted to the Publications Policy Committee for screening prior to publication. The Committee may not censor the contents, but will determine whether the publication conforms to the AALL publication guidelines.
