Dear Dick:

Many thanks for copying me on your letter of November 14 to Connie Matzen.

I believe you misunderstood slightly my comments concerning Item 3. While it is accurate to say that I felt scholarships might be made available to persons who were not members of the Chapter I did not intend to suggest that these would be persons from outside of the region. The type of people I was thinking about were primarily non-professional staff members of law libraries within the region who might not be members of the Southeastern Chapter. Those are the only persons who, I think, might be eligible and deserving of our consideration.

I hope this clarifies somewhat my comments. Best regards.

Sincerely,

Edwin M. Schroeder

Sorry this was buried in my dictation file, also it was dictated just before we were taken out of commission by Kat.
