Dear Caroline:

This letter advises you of the results concerning the SEAALL Scholarship. Each of us determined our priorities independent of one another; I gave three points to the person who was rated first, two points to the person rated second and one point to the person rated third. The results are that Harriet Tuch received six points, Minnie Ripy received five points, Mary Frances Cox received four points, Vilma Rivera de Bayron received two points and Lynda T. Knight received one point. Accordingly, if it is acceptable to you, I will advise Mrs. Tuch that she is the winner of the scholarship for this year and indicate an expression of thanks to the other applicants. Please reply at the bottom of this letter at your earliest convenience.

Best wishes. Look forward to seeing you in Chicago.

Sincerely,

Edwin M. Schroeder
Law Librarian and Associate Professor

The selection is acceptable.
See you in Chicago.
