Dear Bill:

Thank you for sending me a copy of the SCLL Newsletter. I find it very well put together, informative and useful even for a law school library. I was rather surprised to find that nobody in our area gets it but Barbara Nelson who is not yet a professional and her library is not a law library in the true sense of the word. I particularly appreciate your remembering my request and going to the trouble and expense of sending me a copy. Many, many thanks.

There is nothing new to report on Pearl's condition. She is still in coma and does not respond to treatment. It does not sound good. I'll keep you posted if I learn of any change. Kate Wallach and Betty LeBus called and also want to be kept abreast.

I also want to thank you for allowing me to use your name as reference. As you encouraged me to do, I have submitted my application for the librarian's job here. I cannot help but think that it is an exercise in futility but at least it forces my dean and members of the search committee to read my biography. For your information I am also enclosing a copy herewith: in case they would contact you at least you will know what I have done. Frances Hall was here earlier this week and was interviewed for the job. Next week Mr. James, Rick Surles' assistant librarian, is coming from Tennessee, thereafter Mersky's protégé, Harry Martin.

It was good to see you in Atlanta. I'll let you know if anything develops here. With best regards,

Sincerely yours,

(Mrs.) Susan D. Csaky
