Dear Jean:

I was very pleased to learn that the SEALL Grants Committee has awarded $200 to me for the purpose of attending the AALL Annual Conference in San Francisco next summer. The money will be all the more helpful now that I am unemployed. Regardless of my job status next summer, however, I have every intention of both continuing my career in law libraries and attending the conference.

Please let your committee know the great appreciation with which I accept this grant.

Sincerely,

Karen S. Schubart
