RE: Joint SEAALL/VALL Program Proposal

Dear Mary,

Today I received a report as a member of the AALL Education Committee from Chair Pat Kehoe outlining the programs, workshops and institutes which will be offered by AALL at the 1992 Annual Meeting in San Francisco.

Unfortunately our joint proposal was not selected for presentation. Nine different program proposals dealt with the related topics of recruitment and library school education. One of the nine--a proposal submitted by the AALL Special Committee on Recruitment entitled "Recruiting Tomorrow's Law Librarians" will be offered in San Francisco.

Donna and I are both disappointed that our joint proposal didn't fly! Of course there is always next year. I'm sure the issues addressed in our proposal will continue to be of concern to the profession at large. Perhaps we could do a little rethinking and try again. Let me know your feelings on this.

Jim Heller's proposal to present a repeat of the SEAALL Copyright program was accepted as a workshop.

I hope things have settled down after all the early fall flurry! To date I've received one completed Lucile Elliott application--but the deadline is still some time away.

Sincerely,

Jean M. Holcomb
