Dear Ms. Hinson,

Pat Strougal has forwarded your letter regarding membership in the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries to me. I have enclosed a copy of the 1984-85 membership dues notice. As the dues notices for the 1985-86 fiscal year will be mailed soon, please feel free to change the dates on the notice to 1985-86. You and your staff would then be added to the membership list effective June 1, 1985. The chapter has an institutional membership. This is for libraries or firms which will designate the members of its staff to be members of the chapter. The dues are $10. per designated member with a maximum of $100. per institution. If a staff member leaves, their membership stays with the institution.

The next business meeting of the Southeastern Chapter will be in New York during the AALL's national convention. This will be a breakfast meeting. The next meeting with a program will be held in April, 1986 in Charlottesville, Virginia.

Also enclosed are new member information forms. Please fill these out and return them to:

Timothy L. Coggins
University of North Carolina
Chapel Hill Law Library
Van Hecke-Wettach Building, 064A
Chapel Hill, North Carolina 27514
I would like to welcome you and your staff to the Southeastern Chapter. Should you have any questions or need additional information, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Margarette M. Dye
Secretary/Treasurer
