In the last issue of the Southeastern Law Librarian I announced that the Newsletter Committee was developing editorial guidelines. I meant to write to the members of the committee before that appeared in print, but time got away from me. I am enclosing a copy of the current AALL Newsletter guidelines for your information. We need to start thinking about something along these lines for the chapter newsletter. The specific questions that have come up are book reviews, advertising, editorials, and product announcements and endorsements. We presently have no policies, and the inclusion of material in the newsletter has been at the discretion of the editor. I would appreciate hearing your suggestions for guidelines for the Southeastern Law Librarian by Oct. 5, 1981. Thanks.
