Dear Mary:

In spite of the snafus the committee completed its work by making awards and receiving acceptances from the recipients. As you can see I have notified, I hope, the appropriate folk.

Now comes the work of revisions. I have included in this mailing a draft of a proposed calendar and memorandum for subsequent committees, as well as a proposal based, in part, of your notes for changes to the guidelines. As I receive comments from the committee I will forward them to you. Perhaps a final goal would be new Lucille Elliott Guidelines comprised of the old ones, the Wes Daniels report and these comments. What do you think? Of course we will need revised score sheets, too.

I hope we can get this completed by the March board meeting so this won't be hanging over either your head or mine. Thanks for your offer of assistance. The committee and, I, in particular appreciate it.

With all good wishes.

Sincerely,

Sarah K. Wiant
