Dear Mary:

The SEALL Newsletter Committee would like to include in each issue of Southeastern Law Librarian short reports on the activities of each SEALL committee, provided either by the committee chair or by one of the members. If the committee is an active one, a report could be included in each quarterly issue; if committee work is occasional, one report could be adequate.

I will appreciate your either writing a report for submission or finding a volunteer on your committee to do so. The deadline for the next issue is early January. Please send your committee report to me at the above mailing address or the Internet address below. I realize that this is a really busy time of year, both at and away from work, but all we need is a paragraph or two.

Thank you, and I'll look forward to hearing from your committee.

Sincerely,

Gretchen Wolf
