Dear Professor Clapp:

Margaret Axtmann of the National Center for State Courts forwarded to me your letter concerning the SEALL state practice series. I would be most interested in your preparing an article on Alabama practice materials. We are trying to maintain a five-six page limit, and the format that you will find in the first article should provide a guide. I currently have five articles in progress. Although it is quite far in the future, I would like to set a July, 1983 deadline. It is possible that this will be adjusted as progress on the other five articles becomes clearer.

I am very pleased that you want to participate in this endeavor, and if I can be of further help please contact me. I will keep in touch with you concerning the progress of the project.

Sincerely,
