Dear Gardner:

I have notified

1. All the members of the Carolina Law Librarians about the meeting
2. All the members of the two Bar Committees
3. Kleemeier
4. Stubbs
5. Spears

The last three have been asked to speak. Judge Spears I requested to explain his plans for the Durham Bar Library. If not definite enough, to repeat what he said to the Carolina Law Librarians in Durham last spring.

Enclosed find a memorandum which is made on the basis of minutes taken last year. There may be some points here which you will want to bring out in the course of the meeting.

Several new ideas have been buzzing in my mind. Accept or reject as you like.

1. Would it be wise to include Miss Fuller and Miss Strickland on some committee work? Neither has been asked to assume any responsibility so far. Both will be present.

2. Since the matter of establishing local bar libraries was presented to the District Bar group in Durham, is there any way that this subject could be placed before each District Bar?

3. Could we have some feature story writer (Tom Bost or some one else) present at our meeting to glean facts for a News and Observer story. We have some very fine letters from Greensboro, Asheville, and haven't you others that could be turned over to him for this purpose?

If this can be done the same article could be offered to the Law Library Journal.

4. Has provision been made for press notices about the meeting? Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Lumpkin are on the Publicity Committee, or did you want to appoint new committees?

5. Shall we invite seniors from Duke, Wake Forest and Carolina to the meeting? We had a group that was very much interested in the subject last year, ready to come to our last meeting but it was decided to postpone asking them until this meeting.
These thoughts are subject to your approval.

With best wishes for you, I am

Sincerely yours,

Lucile Elliott, Secretary
Carolina Law Librarian
