Dear Cathie:

Kate Wallach, in a letter to me about some AALL matters, indicated that the Louisiana Library Association will meet in New Orleans in March 1961. That Association has invited Marian Gallagher to come to that meeting and I take it she will be one of the featured speakers.

Kate has suggested to me that this might be a very excellent opportunity to have the Southeastern Chapter of AALL meet in New Orleans with the Louisiana Library Association. I am inclined to think that this would prove beneficial to both groups and would like to add my support to Kate's vote on this score. I am more and more convinced that the law librarians can benefit tremendously by meeting with other library groups and I think the time has come for our Southeastern Chapter to strike out and do just this sort of thing. I am sending a copy of this letter to Kate so that she may know that I am thoroughly in accord with her suggestion and am also taking the liberty of sending a copy to Mary Oliver and Sarah Leverette.

As you know Kate is President of the Louisiana Library Association for next year and I think we could do nothing finer than to support her in this venture and probably do ourselves and those with whom we are associated a really fine turn.

With all good wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,
