Dear Sarah:

I am still waiting to hear from Kate Wallach and am writing to her again today. In the meantime Katherine Day and I have been holding up asking anyone else to allow their names to be placed in nomination for other offices.

Katherine and I are both in accord, however, that we would like to see you serve another term as Secretary - Treasurer if you are willing to go on. I know that it is asking a good deal and that you are no doubt looking forward to being relieved of the responsibility. My own feeling is that it is always well to have a carry-over for at least two years in the office of Secretary - Treasurer. It seems to me that this is particularly true right now when we are getting organized.

I hope that you will consent to going on for another term. Please let me hear from you.

Sincerely yours,

Harriet L. French
