Dear Pearl:

I am pleased to know that you have a bank account.

We have a May first deadline on applications for the Lucile Elliott Scholarship and we have received several applications. As soon as the Committee makes a decision you will be notified and I assume that your books will reflect the source of the funds which would be the Southeastern Chapter Scholarship Fund but it does not seem necessary to me to set up a separate account for it. You are the treasurer and you could handle this however you please. I do not think that it goes through the National association, however.

Our membership list should be separate from the AALL Directory it seems to me but I may be wrong on this. I think that people have an option to join and that membership in AALL does not necessarily include those in the Chapter. Nevertheless, everyone who is listed in the Southeastern area ought to have the option to join and we may indirectly increase the membership in the National association. I believe that you have to be a member of AALL before you can be a member of the Chapter. I think also that West Virginia and Arkansas have been considered maybe no and maybe yes of our area depending entirely upon their own desires. The meeting in Chapel Hill was the first one to my knowledge to be attended by a representative from West Virginia. These people are not included in any other chapter and I think that it is proper for us to include them in ours.

I will be writing to you further in regard to the scholarship.

Sincerely yours,

Harriet L. French
