9-26-1940

Letter to Dillard Gardner regarding law library articles, September 26, 1940

Mary Covington

Click here to let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Follow this and additional works at: https://uknowledge.uky.edu/seaall_cor

Part of the Law Librarianship Commons

Repository Citation
Covington, Mary, "Letter to Dillard Gardner regarding law library articles, September 26, 1940" (1940). Correspondence. 833.
https://uknowledge.uky.edu/seaall_cor/833

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the SEAALL Archive at UKnowledge. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence by an authorized administrator of UKnowledge. For more information, please contact UKnowledge@lsv.uky.edu.
September 26, 1940.

Mr. Dillard Gardner, Librarian
Supreme Court Library
Raleigh, North Carolina

Dear Mr. Gardner:

As a member of the Planning Committee of the Carolina Law Library Association, I shall be glad to have your suggestions for the October meeting as promptly as convenient.

Mr. Cannon has written me that he was unable to include an address on law libraries in the program for the State Bar meeting, which, as you know is also the date for our first meeting. He said you could explain to me more fully the reasons for his inability to include such an address, but it isn't necessary for you to go to that trouble, certainly not by letter.

Mr. Wilkinson of our News Bureau tells me that he will cooperate gladly in the matter of law library articles which we plan to prepare for the state papers. When ready, I shall turn these articles over to him, and he will take the responsibility of releasing them simultaneously to the leading state papers. He will also be glad to have a cut of the three schools, Carolina, Duke and Wake Forest and one of the Supreme Court Library Building, to accompany the principal articles about these libraries if we will furnish him the pictures, which I know we'll do gladly. At present, I have no further plans. Please let me have your suggestions. I have noticed that you always have plenty of good ones. Please advise me as to the exact date of the State Bar meeting, so we can send out the notice of the meeting.

Do you think our little group would be interested in having me arrange a visit to the Governor's Mansion sometime during the day, in case some of them have not seen the place - a sort of extra-curricula activity? Mrs. Hoey is a good personal friend of mine and I shouldn't mind in the least asking her to arrange to have us shown through the mansion, even if she were not to be at home at the time of our visit.

Hope you have had a pleasant summer, with sufficient rest and recreation and that you are starting the fall and winter session in the best of health.

Please remember me most cordially to Mrs. Gardner and little Miss Gardner, and also to Mrs. Adams.

Sincerely,

Mary S. Corington