Mr. Dillard S. Gardner, Librarian
North Carolina Supreme Court
Raleigh, North Carolina

Dear Mr. Gardner:

Thank you for your letter of the 3rd.

The explanation of the "black-letter catch-line" in the headnotes of the North Carolina Reports is quite clear; I thank you very much. I appreciate your calling my attention to the new descriptive word indexes in the last few volumes too.

Thank you for your offer to check up on the various index jobs in Raleigh, and report at our meeting. Will you make that a continuing offer, and, at the same time, let me ask W. J. Adams, Jr. to talk to us briefly on the re-codification work, Mr. Robert A. Banks to tell us the status of the indexing he does for the Secretary of State, and perhaps some one for the League of Municipalities to talk briefly on their work. I had not thought of this when I wrote you, but I believe it will be a good idea; and those to whom I have mentioned it here seem to agree. If we have these gentlemen I am sure an address would make the program too lengthy.

Sincerely,

Mary S. Corington
