Dear Betty:

Peter Garland tells me that you had a most successful meeting in Atlanta and he found it very interesting and helpful. I want to apologize again for my defection - I kept hoping until the last minute that I would improve enough to make it because I knew how inconvenient, at the least, it was to have to make changes so late, but just couldn't gain strength enough. Bad reaction to a new medication - and I'm still fighting it.

As a side problem - is it possible to refund my registration fee? Don't know how the authorities would feel about buying a dead horse, as 'twas. Was the institute a financial success?

On a continuing sad note - Pearl is still in a coma. My husband talked to Dean Merritt when he was in Louisville Tuesday. If she comes out of the coma, they must operate to repair the aneurysm that caused cerebral damage. We can only hope.

Sincerely,

Mary
