Dear Pearl -

I finally called Betty Taylor this morning (it had been two weeks since I wrote to ask her about being chairman of nominating committee) - she agreed to take chairmanship, said she had been snowed under with new law school plans. Then I got to looking at the Constitution and by-laws and see that list of offices is to be presented to the members so that they can make recommendations to the nominating committee. So it looks as if the balloting will have to be separate. Am sorry, I know it's a lot of work.

Enclosed is "letter" to go with statement of dues. Have I left anything out? Is there anything special to be discussed at the meeting?

Let me know if I've forgotten anything, or if there is anything else you want me to do.

Yours,
