Dear Pearl -

Just a note, since I haven't answered your nice letter of September. Thanks for the minutes and for all the notes and acknowledgments, etc., you had to write. The Secretary does more work than anybody.

Have been corresponding (a couple of letters, that is) with Paul Willis about the memorial for Dorothy. He reports that a scholarship fund is set up, but that he leans toward something for the Library - dictionary stand (which the Chapter apparently didn't care much about), display case for rare book room, or some such. Said Dorothy had had a bad time with a book donor and was against books as a memorial. Tho I'm sure she'd be pleased with something like the Blackstone reprint Bill suggested. Have sent this information to Sarah.

You should have made your trip to Columbia during the last week or so, have never seen the leaves handsomer - real color. They'll stay another week I imagine, so you'd better keep Middle Tennessee in mind. We are very vaguely considering going to Lexington Saturday to see the Vanderbilt-Kentucky game, but would be gone only that day if we do go.

Do hope you'll be down this way and that everything is going well with you.

Yours,
