Dear Pearl -

Have been in such a state of utter confusion recently that I can't remember if I asked you to send a list of SEAALL members to be added to the AALS SE mailings for the August meeting. Will tell John Beasley to send a copy automatically to the Librarian at each school, but that would not include the non-law school AALL people, so that we should have a list of all members. Were you waiting for KIHX dues to be paid? Could we have the present list and impose upon you to the extent of asking for names of new members who may show up after dues are paid? I doubt if we'll have a large turn-out, Nashville is not the ideal vacation city, particularly in late August!

Any other news from you? Things should be slowed down here, we will completely exhaust our budget this month, don't know how we'll pay June bills. Maybe by telling me I can't go to the Washington meeting! Which would be a drop in the bucket. But in spite of not buying any books - except continuations - we seem to be busier than ever. Hence my confusion. Finals will be over next week, graduation the last Sunday in May, then we plunge into trying to inventory and find out how much we lost this year!

Love,

Mary
