Mrs. Mary Frances Cox
Law Library
Tennessee Valley Authority
Knoxville, Tennessee

Dear Mrs. Cox:

Thank you for your letter of September 5 requesting information concerning membership in the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries.

Our Constitution provides that any person or institution residing in the Southeastern region interested in law libraries may become a member of the chapter. The Southeastern region includes the following states: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, Puerto Rico, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia. There are at present fifty Chapter members representing all types of law libraries. Membership in the American Association of Law Libraries is not a requisite for membership in the Southeastern Chapter. In fact, the Southeastern Chapter is particularly interested in attracting law librarians who are not participating in the national organization.

The purpose of the Southeastern Chapter is, to quote from our Constitution, "to stimulate a spirit of mutual helpfulness among law libraries in the Southeastern region, to promote professional growth, and to further the development and usefulness of law libraries in the Southeastern region."

Mrs. Lillian Taylor, the librarian at the Knox County Governmental Library in Knoxville, is an active member of the Southeastern Chapter. I am sure that she will be delighted to talk to you about our organization.

I certainly hope that you will plan to come to Williamsburg.

Sincerely yours,

Frances H. Hall, Secretary-Treasurer
Southeastern Chapter, A.A.L.L.
