Mr. Dillard Gardner
Supreme Court Library
Raleigh, N. C.

18 January 1961

Dear Mr. Gardner:

I made a mistake in not checking the By-laws of the Southeastern Chapter, American Association of Law Libraries before having copies zeroxed. Since they were dated March, 1960 I assumed they were up to date. However they did not reflect the change in the amount of annual dues which was voted on at the 1959 Chapter meeting. At that time the membership dues for members of the American Association of Law Libraries was changed to two dollars a year. This is in addition to the dollar refund per member which is received from the national organization. Therefore it will necessary for you to send me another dollar. I apologize for causing you unnecessary trouble.

Sincerely yours,

Francis H. Hall
Secretary-Treasurer
Southeastern Chapter
