Dear Frankie:

As soon as I can select the menus for the dinner and luncheon and can determine the amount of the registration fee for our SEALL meeting this fall, I will send you mimeographed copies of the program. I have reservation blanks from The Motor House, too, which I will send.

When I mentioned some Colonial Williamsburg brochures to the secretary there, she promised to get some together and mail them to you. Perhaps you have received them by now. If you don't want to use them, it will be all right with me—I thought maybe something of that kind might help to draw more people to our meeting. But please feel free to use none, some, or all of them as you see fit.

I'll select those menus and let you know the prices as soon as I possibly can.

As ever,

Anna
