Dear Frankie:

Unfortunately, we have run out of covers for the pamphlets containing the three addresses. We do have plenty of all the other pages, so I am sending you today three copies without the outside covers.

I am glad you like the pamphlets. Dr. Swindler is the one who is responsible for getting them together. The idea was his and every bit of the work—even the mailing—was done by him and his staff.

At last I have received a bill for the stencils and paper on which our programs were printed. It was $2.40, and the pads of paper in the folders were $1.10. I am cashing the check today for $3.50.

Yours,
