Dear Pearl:

Many thanks for the Constitution and By-Laws for Southeastern. Perhaps I will be able to hang on to these.

I received a reply from Bill Younger yesterday saying that he would accept the nomination for Secretary-Treasurer. I would like to think that we will be able to engage some of the non-law school librarians in the work of the Association. I think many of them have felt unnecessary, if not unwelcome.

There seems to be nothing more specific concerning elections than Article 3 of the By-Laws which indicates that they would have to take place before the annual meeting.

At the rate the Freshmen are withdrawing, we may end up with a class of workable size. Our new professor who asked for Legal Research is working them (and us) to death! But since it is for a good cause and since he is such a phenomenon, we will happily cooperate.

Sincerely,

(Miss) Caroline C. Heriot
