Dear Mary:

Please do me and the Southeastern Chapter of A. A. L. L. a favor. You can do this by replying "Yes" to this question: Will you serve as Chairman of this year's nominating committee? We will appreciate it.

As you know the Constitution of the Chapter requires election of President-Elect and Secretary-Treasurer biennially. As "The President-Elect shall serve as Vice-President and shall automatically become president after two years and shall so serve during the third and fourth years following his or her election," Mary Polk Green will become President. Our By-Laws, Article III, say: "The officers shall be elected biennially by mail ballot."

I have a letter from Pearl in which she states she would like to mail out bills for "Dues" by the first of May. She also suggests that we send out the ballots at the time we send the bills. This is a good suggestion.

Please reply soon saying that you accept the Chairmanship of this committee. If you will do this, I would also like for you to name the other two members of this committee.

Yours very truly,

U. V. Jones, President
Southeastern Chapter A. A. L. L.
