Dear Pearl:

Enclosed is photocopy of letter from Eileen Murphy. As we only recently completed the forms authorizing your signature to S. E. Chapter check, I assume the Dillard Gardner payment has not been made. If it hasn’t, I assume it can now be done. Please let me know how this turns out.

Yours very truly,

U. V. Jones, President
S. E. Chapter A.A.L.L.

Dear Mr. Jones:

I am afraid that I am guilty of a goof and am now seeking your help to clear the air.

In the Law Library Journal, Vol. 58 at p. 50, there is a notation that the Southwestern Chapter has made a contribution to the Headquarters Fund in memory of Dillard Gardner. I have not received any notification of this from our office in Chicago nor have I received any mail in the form of a resolution or a pledge card.

Can you tell me if one was mailed to Headquarters, or to the President or to me? It might have been lost in the mail.

I certainly would want to acknowledge such a gift as soon as possible. Many thanks.

Sincerely,

Eileen M. Murphy
