Mrs. Pearl Von Allmen, Librarian
Law Library
University of Kentucky
Louisville, Kentucky 40208

Dear Pearl:

Enclosed is a letter to be used with our "dues" statement and ballot forms. I have chosen June 1, 1966 as the latest date for the return of the questionnaire and ballots for the reason that we should advise Forrest Drummond shortly after that date of the number of members we expect to attend the breakfast. We need some kind of deadline for the return of ballots anyway. I hope this return date of June 1st does not rush you too much, but the ballots and questionnaire will have to go out soon if we expect replies by June 1st.

I appreciate the help you have given me and your willingness to mimeograph sufficient copies of the enclosed letter.

Yours very truly,

U. V.

U. V. Jones, President
Southeastern Chapter of A.A.L.L.

Dear Member:

By means of this communication we are doing three things:

1. You are invited to attend the next meeting of our Chapter, which will be a breakfast meeting to be held at the Ambassador Hotel, Los Angeles, on Tuesday, July 5, 1966, at 8 a.m. I have been asked to advise the hotel of how many we expect at the breakfast meeting so that an appropriate room may be assigned, and, also, which of the two breakfasts listed below is preferred. Apparently, there is no individual choice. We must as a group eat one or the other. So please complete the form below and return.

2. A ballot is enclosed. The nominating committee has submitted candidates for President-Elect and Secretary-Treasurer. Our constitution provides: "The President-Elect shall serve as Vice-President and shall automatically become President after two years and shall so serve during the third and fourth years following his or her election." So Mary Polk Green, presently our Vice-President, will become President when the results of this election are announced at our meeting in Los Angeles.

3. A statement that Southeastern Chapter dues are now payable is enclosed.

Please return by June 1, 1966, the completed questionnaire and your ballot to Pearl Von Allmen, our Secretary-Treasurer. The dues payment should also be made to our Secretary-Treasurer.

Our next annual meeting will be a joint meeting of the Southeastern Chapter of A. A. L. L. with the Southeastern Chapter of A. A. L. S. at the Imperial House, Lexington, Kentucky, on August 25-26, 1966. The panels planned should be of considerable interest to law librarians and law professors. Miss Dorothy Salmon, University of Kentucky, has been appointed chairman of the Program and Arrangements Committee for this Lexington meeting. Details of the annual meeting and other business will be discussed at the breakfast meeting in Los Angeles.

It has been a pleasure to have served as President for the past two years. Thanks to each of you. Especially do I thank my fellow officers and the committee members for their help.

Yours very truly,

U. V. Jones
President.
