October 10, 1974

Mr. Michael R. Primavera
Hotel Fontainebleau
Oceanfront 44th to 47th Streets
Miami Beach, Florida 33140

Dear Mr. Primavera:

I appreciate your cordial invitation to the American Association of Law Libraries to hold their annual meeting in your hotel in 1979. I do not actively have anything to do with this decision, but I will pass your letter on to Mrs. Marion Boner, President of AALL. There is no Florida Chapter and you have evidently already communicated with Mr. William Younger of the Southeastern Chapter.

You may want to approach Mr. Mario Goderich, the Law Librarian at the University of Miami in Coral Gables, as he would have the bulk of the responsibility. I strongly have my doubts, however, that Mr. Goderich or the Association will be interested as the Annual Meeting was just held in Miami in 1971. It is not the sort of thing one wishes to undertake very often.

Again, we appreciate your kind offer and will keep it in mind.

Very sincerely,

Mrs. Nancy Kitchen
SE, AALL Secretary-Treasurer
