Dear Pearl:

Please excuse the delay in responding to your letter of March 4. It has been necessary for me to be away from the office for a week and a half and have simply been unable to get to it.

As of right now, I have no firm plans for attending the institute in Atlanta. Money is very low, we are involved in some evaluations and procedural planning for a computer project, and since our library is completely cataloged and classified by LC, it just is not terribly convenient to make the trip for a relatively small amount of return. There is a chance that plans might change at the last minute, but only if Ed becomes more concerned about someone representing the library. If I do not make it would you or Bill Younger please make a few notes for me so that I can include them in a secretarial report in July.

I sympathize with you where the moving plans are concerned, know you are becoming more deeply involved and I am very glad that it is you and not me. Look forward to seeing you soon.

Very sincerely,

(Mrs.) Nancy J. Kitchen
