Dear Bill:

In working with the materials you sent, I have come across several questions I am sure you will be able to answer. I have been trying to arrange the membership list and make any corrections necessary in order to have a new one typed. What do you do in the case where an individual has resigned and you only have an address, which is a law library? Do you delete completely? Also, when a new person appears on the add and delete sheet from A.A.L.L., or if you know of a prospective member, do you add their name automatically, or do you write to them asking them to become a member of the Southeastern Chapter?

It will soon be time to send out ballots concerning the amendments to the Chapter's constitution. Should individual ballots be sent to each member, or could a ballot for each member in one library be sent to the head librarian?

I am sure I will find more things I need answers to as I proceed, so you will probably be hearing from me often.

Very sincerely,

(Mrs.) Nancy J. Kitchen
