Dear Margie,

On behalf of the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries, I thank you for participating in our 2000 Annual Meeting in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Although I don't have much to compare it with, SEAALL seems to be a good size and a very congenial group.

I hope that your husband and children enjoyed themselves and that the girls had an adequate spring break tan when they returned to the frozen north! Of course, it will be a cherished SEAALL memory to remember your great rendition of the chicken dance.

Thank you, also, for informing SEAALL members of the current activities and initiatives of the national organization. While I like to think I'm fairly well-informed and that I read Spectrum, I always find out something I wasn't aware of.

Thanks again for your help in making this a memorable meeting!

Sincerely,

Catherine Lemann
President, SEAALL
