Dear Dean Galligan,

Thank you for participating in the American Association of Law Libraries 2000 Annual Conference as the SEAALL Chapter Visitor. I hope that you enjoyed the conference.

Bill Beintema let me know that you experienced a good mix of what the meeting offers. I hope you agree that the educational programming was interesting. There is such a variety, ranging from substantive legal issues to issues of how law librarians can cope with the changes in our environments. I usually find myself having a difficult time deciding which programs to attend.

I think that the social events at our conference are terrific. I was glad to see you at the SEAALL reception prior to the West party. Of course, the networking that we do at the social events is vital! We all have stories of making friends at these meetings and then calling on them for help at times of crisis.

The SEAALL members thank you for taking the time to learn more about law librarians and law librarianship. It demonstrates the value that you place on our profession. It particularly indicates your appreciation for the staff at the UT law library. Thank you for your support!

Sincerely,

Catherine Lemann
SEAALL President, 2000 - 2001
