Dear Nancy,

I cannot adequately express my gratitude to you for your work as Local Arrangements Chair for the 2001 Joint Annual Meeting of SEAALL and SWALL. I heard no complaints during the conference and heard many positive comments. I think that the meeting was an unqualified success.

I hope that you will also convey my thanks to everyone at Georgia State for assisting with the meeting. I am positive that I will never know how much behind the scenes work was done by your staff. Local arrangements is an enormous task, more than you probably imagined. The work of all the volunteers is crucial to the success of events such as our annual meeting.

Despite your telling me that your hair had turned white coping with the details of the meeting, you looked as if you had recovered by the time the meeting began. It's true that at some point you just have to cross your fingers and hope there are no major problems.

On behalf of all the members of SEAALL, I extend many thanks for all your hard work.

Sincerely,

Catherine Lemann
