Hi everyone,

At last year's business meeting in Puerto Rico, the membership agreed that this list should be an opt out list. Everyone has now been added to the list. I implore you not to unsubscribe. There is very little traffic on the list but what is sent out is important for chapter awareness and business.

To reiterate a couple of important items that have been sent out lately:

1. I hope that everyone has heard the results of the elections. Please congratulate President/elect - Terry Long, Treasurer - Deborah Mayo-Jeffries, Board member at large - Pedro Padilla. Thanks to Reba Best, Kathy Crosslin and Lisa Smith Butler for running.

2. Georgiana Wellford solicits suggestions and nominations for the location of our 2004 meeting. In 2002, we're going to Ft. Lauderdale and Lexington in 2003. Please contact her at gwellford@oag.state.va.us for more information.

3. I am soliciting suggestions for a Chapter VIP to attend the AALL conference in Minneapolis. Last year's VIP was Tom Galligan, Dean at Bill Beintema's library (Tennessee). I've had a couple of suggestions of types of people: a law firm library partner or a legal newspaper person. Other ideas might be a dean, judge, court administrator, etc. It gives us a chance to show the VIP the breadth of issues that law librarians deal with, as well as the fun that we have together.

I look forward to seeing the over 240 of you who will be in Atlanta. Rhea, Nancy and the local arrangement committee have done a great job on the social portion and the program committee has provided us with an array of interesting and useful programs.

Again, please stick with this list!

Cathy
