Dear Gail,

On behalf of the members of the Southeastern and Southwestern chapters of the American Association of Law Libraries, I thank you for contributing to the success of our 2001 joint Annual Meeting in Atlanta.

As a former local arranger, I know that handling registrations is a much bigger job than you might have imagined when you were asked to help. Of course, it is a job that is vital to a successful meeting. I appreciate how careful you were in processing the registrations and requests for extra tickets. If there were problems, I did not hear about them. You are truly one of the people without whom the meeting would have fallen apart.

I also appreciate your unflagging good humor. I find it difficult to keep track of many different duties and not get confused, but you don't appear to have that problem. You did a wonderful job all around!

Many, many thanks for all your hard work.

Sincerely,

Catherine Lemann
