Dear Ms. Vanhoy:

On behalf of the Executive Board and members of the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries, I thank you for your firm's support of our 2001 annual conference in Atlanta. As you know, this contribution will be used to support the Institute luncheon.

I believe that support of our activities by our parent organizations is wonderful recognition of the value they place on their law librarians. It reflects positively on their own employees as well as on our profession.

Thank you again for Kutak Rock's generous contribution. I hope that I will see you in Atlanta in April.

Sincerely,

Catherine Lemann
