Dear Nancy:

Thank you for your letter regarding the payment of Morris Cohen's travel expenses for the Hilton Head meeting in August. The following figures apply to the library part of the program, which had as its primary expense the luncheon.

Reservations: 31
Meals served: 37
Meals paid: 35 at $5.00 $175.00
Shortage paid by the South Eastern Conference of Law Schools: $10.00

I have expressed the desire of our chapter to participate in any gain for the conference to last year's Chairman, Ralph C. McCullough. He says they don't have anywhere near the full amount of Cohen's expenses but can squeeze out $50.00 if it would help. I told him it would help. It seems to me it would set a precedent for having at least some contribution from the South Eastern Conference of Law Schools, which of course we have never had before.

I am extremely embarrassed that we are delaying reimbursement to Morris, and if necessary I will write him a personal check to cover this quickly. Please let me know as soon as possible whether the remainder of the amount will be paid by our chapter. I'm sending a copy of this to Bill at his request so that you will both have as much information as possible.

Thanks for your help

Sincerely,

Jon S. Schultz
