Enclosed is my copy of the questionnaire on inter-library loan service. I am sorry that I did not get this in on the first of March.

I feel that certain questions may require some supplementary explanation. Under the question covering English materials I did not include the English and Empire Digest, News' Digest, the Australian Digest, or Halsbury's Laws of England (second edition). I was not sure whether these were of interest to your survey but include them for what they are worth. I did not include any English periodicals of which we have approximately six on current subscription with two Australian periodicals and one from the Philippines.

I hope that my answers include the proper information.

With kindest regards and best wishes to you and Jane.

Sincerely,

Sarah Leverette
