Dear Frances:

Since our return from the American Association of Law Librarians convention Mary Oliver and I have been preparing a mailing list and a membership listing for the Southeastern Chapter A.A.L.L. This was accomplished by a form mailing to all Southeastern Law Librarians. You, no doubt, received one of these. The results of this mailing gave us a more or less concrete membership but the requests for an expression for convenient meeting time resulted only in numerous widely varying dates.

Although we can send out a copy of the constitution to the membership for comment we should nevertheless plan a meeting during this fiscal year. Please let me know what you think concerning the time and place of meeting, or give other suggestions that you might have with regard to taking some organizational action.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Sarah Leverette

Mary, thanks so much for the game invitation but on checking up I find I can't make it that weekend. I won't be able to make it for the season between me & Albert. Please give me a rain check for later. Thank you.
